FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MILLER FOUNDATION SUPPORTS RIVERWOOD RANCH

The Dr. Dane and Mary Louise Miller Foundation has given funds to Riverwood Ranch. The gift will support an independent living training program for teenage girls. Foundation Board Member, Cindy Hepler, stated “The Board is pleased to make this charitable contribution to assist with the expense of this project.”

The Riverwood Ranch program is the second step in a three part program that helps teenage girls complete their education, gain employment, and live independently. Riverwood Ranch is owned and operated by Lifeline Youth & Family Services, Inc. The program is licensed by the Indiana Department of Child Services. The program is expected to open April 6th.
